

So friendly and kind,
the house was beautiful and Anita + Luis were wonderful hosts! One day I would like to stay longer than one night.

The family we stayed with was so welcoming and generous. I was comfortable in the space and they created an easy environment to ask questions and learn from them. They were accommodating, kind, and overall, I had a great experience.

- Super friendly & welcoming
- made us feel very welcome
- amazing food
- wonderful experience

Nothing! Ran really well, host family was fantastic.

- friendly
- great food
- many dogs
- nice room
- beautiful view

- very welcoming & friendly :) )

- patient w/ communication when we weren't fluent in Spanish

- very informative in telling us about their community & culture

Takeaways

The family I stayed with used all of their resources to survive and had limited waste.

The community is very involved with one another.

I had such an incredible time staying in la Calera. I felt so welcomed into my home for the night and was treated like part of the family. It was